PLEASE NOTE: As from this issue of "The Pioneer", we are discontinuing the use of Business Reply Envelopes in connexion with our Appeals. This is for two reasons,

(a) because of the very high cost of these special envelopes and, (b) the cost of retrieving them from the Post Office which is 10 cents per envelope.

You will notice that we are now using a different, cheaper sort of envelope for the return of your gift to our funds and it requires the postage to be paid by the sender.

"DIALOGUE WITH YOUTH" — by A. Mecres
Dr Ainslie Mecres, an Australian psychiatrist of world renown, has taken the trouble to talk to young people in a relaxed and easy manner and he has come up with some surprising findings. The result is a book that anyone not totally unconcerned with the younger generation and therefore with the future of the world, should read. This book is addressed to the young, to help them understand their reactions to a confusing world and to help relieve them of their hang-ups and anxieties.

It could be that the world is entering a new age. Whatever is happening, I certainly believe it has nothing to do with the stars and so, as a Christian, I'll keep right on telling everyone I meet about the One who makes all things NEW. Himselv instead of what man thought about God, it hit him like a ton of bricks! He took a Bible from me and, when I visited him two days later, he was still reading it. He has now moved back to the city to make a fresh start in life. "Stone the crows! What do you know about that!" When we talked about God had to say about difficulties. Then he asked me what I did for a living and when I told him I was an Evangelist he said — "We talked about all the various things that he thought would be good in his religion and some of the this and I've tried that now I'm working on my own." main interest he said was religion. "I'm trying to put together a religion that will satisfy me. I've tried this and I've tried that now I'm working on my own."

While we waited for his mate to have his leg attended to I talked to Mike about his interests. His main interest was to have his leg attended to I talked to Mike about his interests. This learned that both of these fellows had left home because of parental difficulties and were just drifting about. He had just badly gashed his leg with an axe and it needed immediate attention. On the way to town I visited a camping area and a young fellow raced up to me and asked if I would take his mate to hospital.

"What struck me was that the average Australian involved in an evening group: —

"People are more aware — doing more. "Old problem! — as in Isaiah 5:8, 10:1, 56:1. "The size of the problem." "Poverty! ..

"The heart of man needs to be changed." "Respecting others' views — learn what they're thinking." "I don't have enough, so leave things as they are." "What are others doing?"

"Why can't Holland help?" "How are they going to use it? — sensibly?" "Australia needs our money!" "They can help themselves." "We don't want a reduction in our standards!"
